Ipsos - Housing and the Renters Reform Bill, 2023

lpsos

May 2023

Half think the Conservative Government is doing a bad job at improving housing in Britain

Do you think the Conservative Government is doing a good job or bad job at improving housing in Britain or do you have no view either way?

Good job	Ne	ither good nor bad job		Bad job
Among all
18%	24%		52%
Among 2019 Conserv	vative voters
29%		33%	34%
Among 2019 Labour	voters
11% 13%		74%
Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-1	4 May 2023, including 2019 Conservative vot	ers (637) and Labour voters (552)

This is uniformly felt among different tenure groups

Do you think the Conservative Government is doing a good job or bad job at improving housing in Britain or do you have no view either way?

Good job	Neit	er good nor bad job Bad job
Among all
18%	24%	52%
Among Owners
21%	25%	49%
Among Mortgagors
16%	23%	53%
Among Social renters	6
17%	25%	54%
Among Private renter	rs
13%	20%	59%

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350),

The public are divided over whether a Labour government would do a better job

And compared to the current Government, do you think a Labour government would do a better or worse job at improving housing in Britain, or would it make no difference?

It would make no difference

Among all
35%		35%	/o		18%
Among 2019 Conservative v	voters
12%	43%			39%
Among 2019 Labour voters
	69%			20%	6%
Base: 2.496 enline British edults aged 16.75, 12.14 May 2022, in

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including 2019 Conservative voters (637) and Labour voters (552)

Worse job

Better job

Renters are surer Labour would do a better job

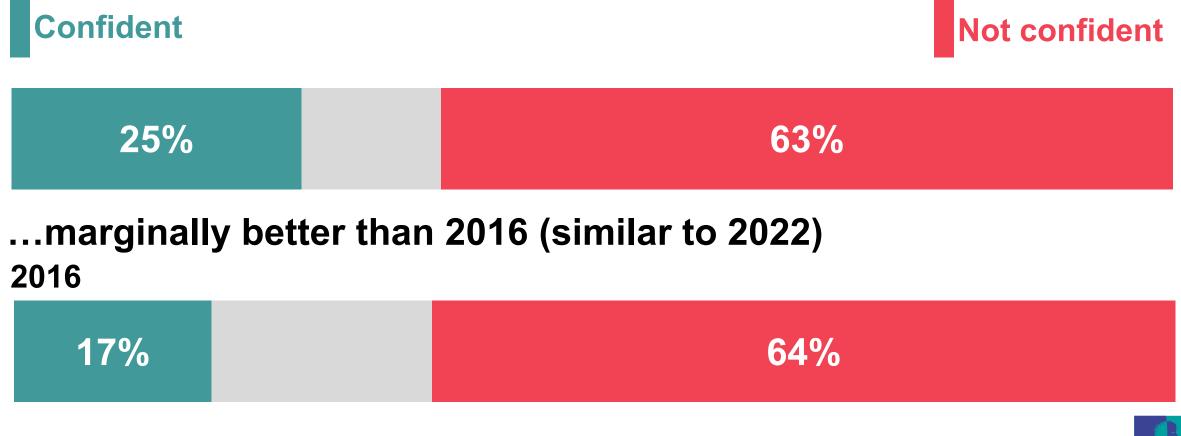

And compared to the current Government, do you think a Labour Government would do a better or worse job at improving housing in Britain, or would it make no difference?

Better job	It would make no difference	Worse job
Among all
35%	35%	18%
Among Owners
28%	38%	24%
Among Mortgagors
37%	34%	16%
Among Social renters
42%	34%	18%
Among Private renters
40%	33%	11%

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350)

Almost two thirds say they are not confident that the UK will build enough affordable new homes in the next few years...

How confident, or not, are you that the UK will build enough affordable new homes in the next few years?

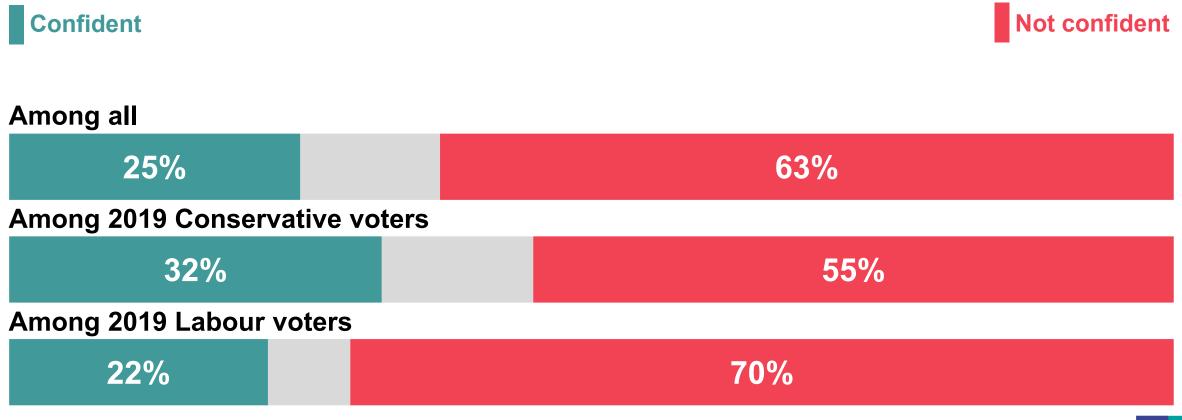

© Ipsos | May 2023

A majority of Conservative and Labour voters are not confident

How confident, or not, are you that the UK will build enough affordable new homes in the next few years?

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including 2019 Conservative voters (637) and Labour voters (552)

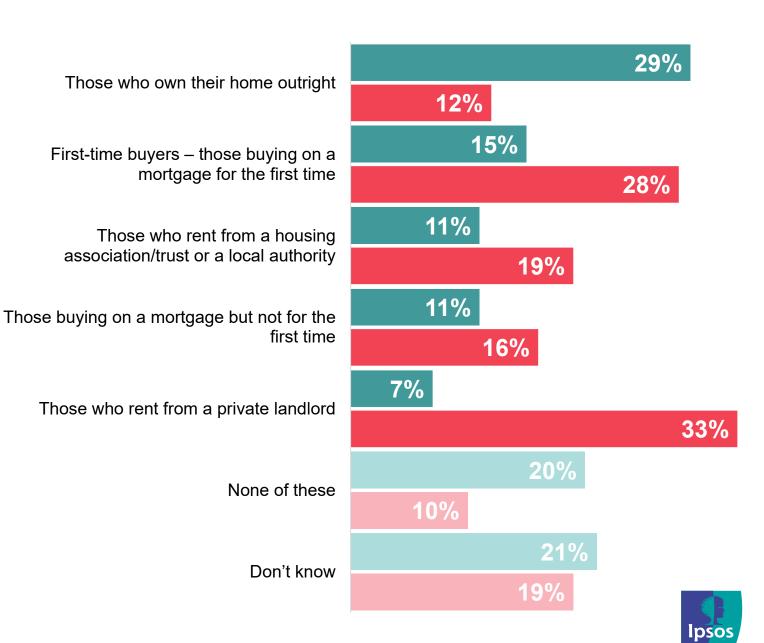

Those who own their home outright are thought to have benefited the most from actions taken by the Conservative government in recent years, while those who rent from a private landlord are thought to have benefited the least

On balance, which of the following groups, if any, would you say have benefited the most from the actions taken by the Conservative Government to improve housing in recent years, and which groups, if any, would you say have benefited the least?

Benefited the most

Benefited the least

The majority think that landlords taking advantage of tenants and the amount and condition of properties available for rent are serious problems

Below is a list of housing issues facing Britain today. Please indicate how serious a problem, if at all, you think each one is.

Serious problem
Not a serious problem

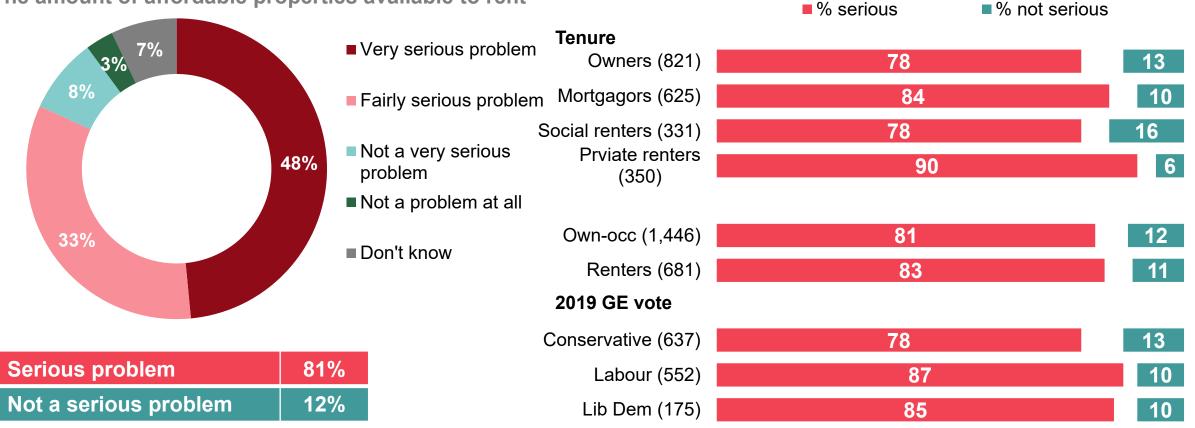

The amount of affordable properties available to rent	81%	12%
Landlords taking advantage of tenants	77%	15%
The amount of social housing available i.e. homes to rent from a housing association or a local authority	74%	15%
The amount of properties available to rent in general	73%	17%
The condition of rented properties in the private sector	72%	18%
The condition of rented properties in the social sector	69%	20%
Tenants taking advantage of landlords	45%	42%
	Passe 2 196 police Pritich edults aread 16 75 12 14 May 2022

All tenure groups and voters see the amount of affordable housing as a serious problem

Please indicate how serious a problem, if at all, you think each one is?

The amount of affordable properties available to rent

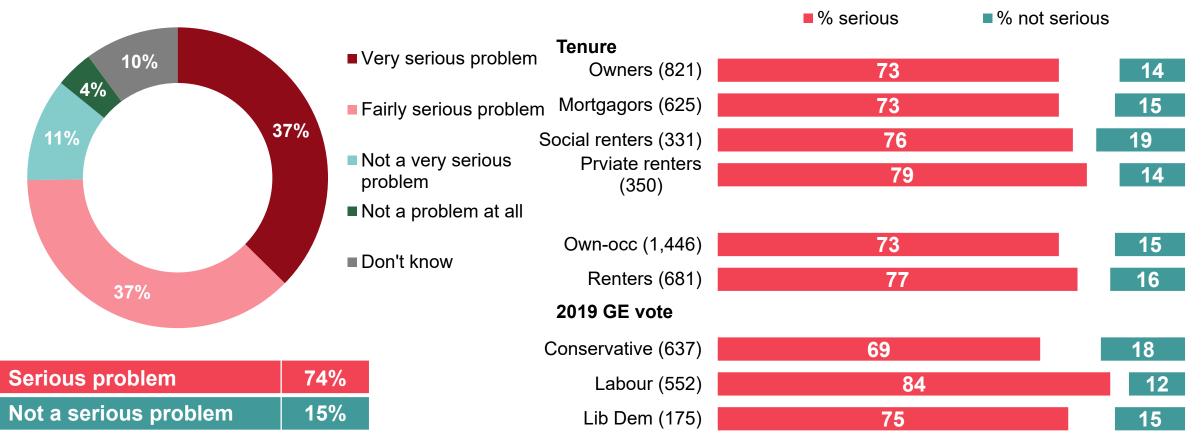

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350), 2019 Conservative voters (637) and Labour voters (552)

This is also the case in terms of the amount of social housing

Please indicate how serious a problem, if at all, you think each one is?

The amount of social housing available i.e. homes to rent from a housing association or a local authority

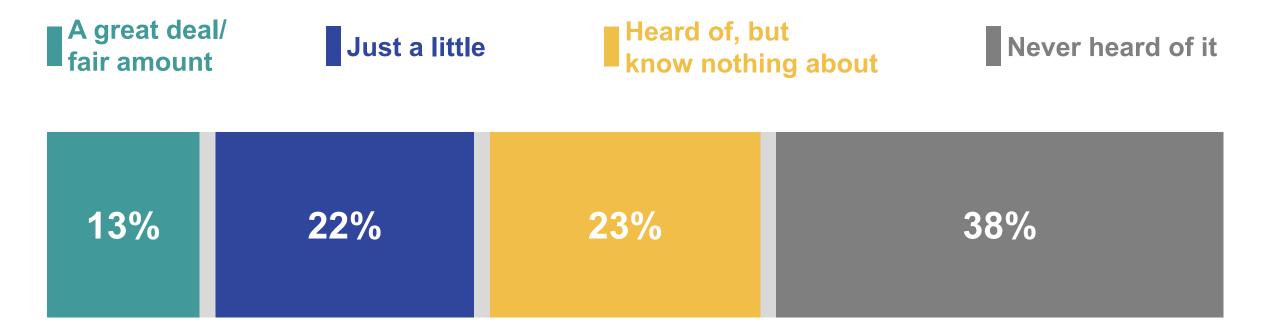

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350), 2019 Conservative voters (637) and Labour voters (552)

Two in five say they have never heard of the Renters' Reform Bill, while similar proportions have heard just a little or have heard of but know nothing about it

How much, if anything, have you seen or heard about the Renters' Reform Bill – a draft new law being considered by Parliament?

40% of private renters have never heard of it

How much, if anything, have you seen or heard about the Renters' Reform Bill – a draft new law being considered by Parliament?

A great deal/ fair amount	Just a little	Heard of, know noth	Never heard of it
Among all
13%	22%	23%	38%
Among Owners
12%	23%	25%	38%
Among Mortgago	ors
12%	21%	24%	37%
Among Social rei	nters
15%	22%	22%	37%
Among Private re	enters
12%	25%	19%	40%

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350)

Britons support policies being considered for inclusion in the Renters' Reform Bill

Now for some questions about policies that are being considered for inclusion in the Renters' Reform Bill. To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose each of the following policies, in principle?

Support

Neither support nor oppose

Oppose

37			1070	tenants how, when and for what reason rents can be increased
5%	1:		73%	Requiring homes rented out by private landlords to meet the same standards as those rented by social landlords – housing associations and local authorities
%	14		73%	Limiting the number of times a landlord can increase the rent they charge to tenants so this happens only once a year
%	17		70%	Increasing the minimum notice period landlords must give to change the rent they charge - from one month to two months
%	18		70%	Making it easier for tenants to challenge rent increases they consider unfair
0	17%		68%	Making it easier for landlords to evict from their properties tenants who are responsible for antisocial behaviour
6	19°		66%	The creation of an Ombudsman covering private landlords as well as social landlords
	21%	2'	58%	Abolishing 'no fault' evictions i.e., an eviction by a landlord without giving a specific reason as long as the notice period has been given
1	%	21%	54%	Making it illegal for landlords to refuse to let their properties to families with children
1	%	23%	52%	Making it illegal for landlords to refuse to let their properties to those in receipt of benefits
	%	26%	51%	Giving tenants the right to request they can live with a pet(s) which cannot be unreasonably refused by landlords

76%

Ensuring that landlords have to make it clear in agreements with 20/

8%

10%

15%

19%

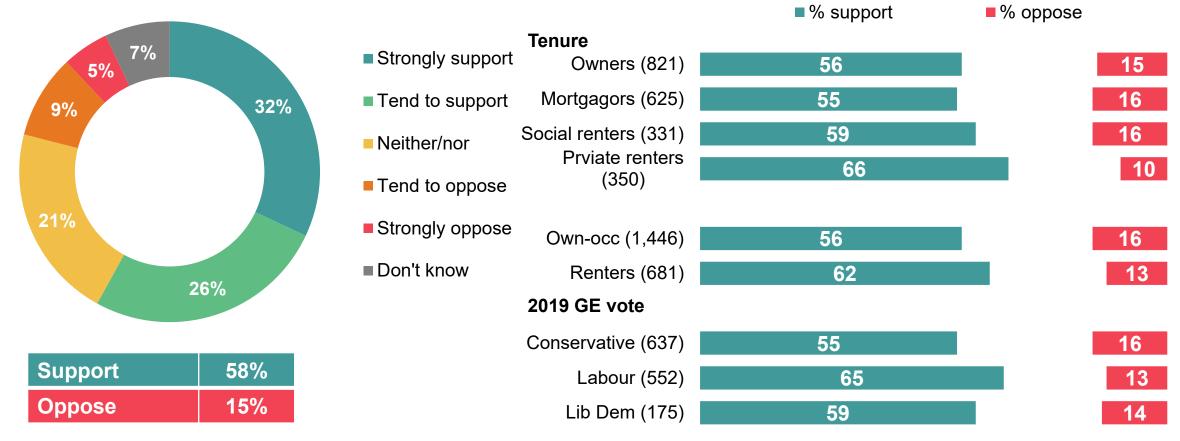

18%

17%

Six in ten support the abolition of 'no fault' evictions

To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose each one, in principle...?

Abolishing 'no fault' evictions i.e., an eviction by a landlord without giving a specific reason as long as the notice period has been given

Seven in ten support raising standards of rental homes

To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose each one, in principle...?

Requiring homes rented out by private landlords to meet the same standards as those rented by social landlords – housing associations and local authorities

Seven in ten support limits on the frequency of rent rises

To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose each one, in principle...?

Limiting the number of times a landlord can increase the rent they charge to tenants so this happens only once a year  $-\infty$

Three-quarters support clarity on reasons for rent increases

To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose each one, in principle...?

Ensuring that landlords have to make it clear in agreements with tenants how, when and for what reason rents can be increased

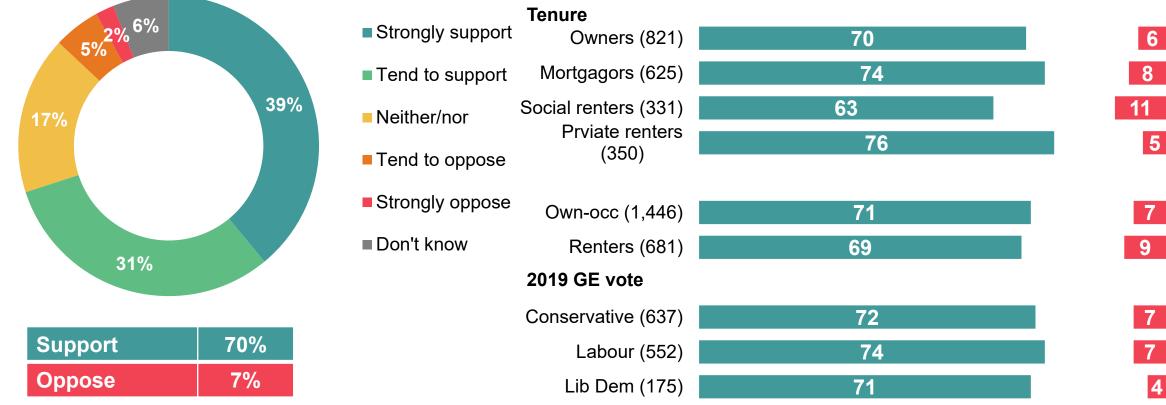

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350), 2019 Conservative voters (637) and Labour voters (552)

Seven in ten support a minimum notice period for changes in rents

To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose each one, in principle...?

Increasing the minimum notice period landlords must give to change the rent they charge - from one month to two months

There is also strong support for making it easier for landlords to undertake ASB-related evictions

To what extent, if at all, do you support or oppose each one, in principle...?

Making it easier for landlords to evict from their properties tenants who are responsible for antisocial behaviour

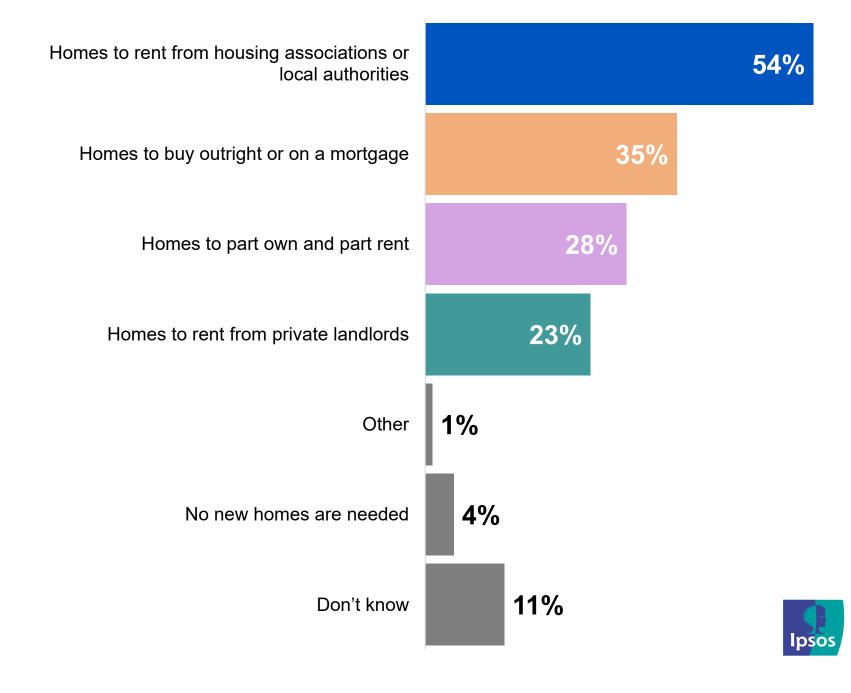

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350), 2019 Conservative voters (637) and Labour voters (552)

More than half of Britons think homes to rent from housing associations or local authorities are most needed

Please consider each of the following types of properties that Britons might live in.

Which, if any, of these types of homes do you think are most needed?

Homes to rent from housing associations or local authorities are top among all tenures

Which, if any, of these types of homes do you think are most needed?

Among Mortgagors

Among Owners

Homes to part own and part rent

Homes to rent from private landlords

None/don't know

Base: 2,186 online British adults aged 16-75, 12-14 May 2023, including owners (821), mortgagors (625), social renters (331), private renters (350)

Homes to part own and part rent 32% Homes to rent from private 41% landlords 15% None/don't know

Ipsos

For more information

Ben Marshall Research Director Ben.Marshall@ipsos.com

Jordana Moser Associate Director Jordana.Moser@ipsos.com Gideon Skinner Research Director Gideon.Skinner@ipsos.com

Laura King Graduate Research Executive Laura.King@ipsos.com

